Dear Parents,

Thank you to all parents for your support this week, in a changing and strange environment. Thank you for keeping your children in isolation as the information about Corona Virus changed daily. Also, thank you for bringing your children to school.

I am so proud of Robert Featherstone who attended a writers workshop on Monday, by the author Robin Price. Robert produced excellent work, made new friends and was a great ambassador for the school. Well done Robert!

Thank you to students from Writtle University for talking to us in assembly about farming, agriculture and animal welfare. The students also brought two little lambs and they visited all our classrooms. Please see the pictures and videos on Twitter.

Unfortunately most of the other activities were cancelled this week and we will do our best to rearrange them when we are all back to normal. Please see the list of activities that have been cancelled on the right hand side and make note of these dates in your diary. Piano lessons have been cancelled as Mrs Brandon has to isolate. However she will make up these lessons to the children as soon as she can.

Please, please read the parent mails that I have been sending out nearly every day as they contain updated information from the Government or Essex County Council.

The children will be given a Home Learning pack/letter/information to start doing at home. There is a revision pack for Year 2 and Year 6 and even though SATs are cancelled the children have to still complete the curriculum. There are individual packs for the other year groups. Children will also be given books from the library. Please keep these books safe. If your child is not at school, a teacher will get the pack to you, ring your door bell and leave the pack on the door step. I am very grateful to all staff for delivering packs and information in their own time.

This is a very unusual situation. I will keep in contact with you by Parent Mail.

Children of Key workers can come to school as normal from 8.15am to 3.15pm starting next Monday 23rd March. Children with EHCPs and who have support from Social Care can also come to school. Please read the Parent Mail explaining this in more detail and follow the link to the mobile number to make contact with the school to confirm that your child will attend.

I hope everyone stays safe and that you are all healthy in these challenging times.

Best wishes, Maire O'Regan and Sarah Cotton
