Boundless Creativity

Dear Parents,

It has been great to see so many children back to school this week and now the atmosphere in school is beginning to feel a bit more normal. The children have been fantastic; so well behaved and so respectful of the new rules in school. They are a credit to you all. Now that we have more children in school it is possible to work through some of the age appropriate curriculum and we have a great routine in place, with both core learning and outdoor learning. The children seem to be very happy to be back and are working hard.

If you have home learning completed, please bring it to school any day before the 17th July and place it in the Home Learning Box where it will be kept in quarantine for 72 hours. We will then check the work and issue your child with a certificate for working hard at home. Thank you to all the parents who have worked with their children either practically or academically. The children have come back calm and ready to take on the challenge. We also ask that the Year 6 CGP revision guides are given back to school.

Guidance came out from the government on Thursday regarding returning to school. Please allow the school, governors and the Trust to assimilate this information and work out how it will affect our school. I will not have answers for some time and neither will the staff so please wait for the information to be sent to all parents in a letter or in the newsletter. It may take some time to re write the risk assessment and consider how we will open in September. Thank you for your patience.

A huge thank you to Year 5 and who tidied the front of the school, Mrs Buckley who cut the grass, Mrs Mizen and Mrs Murkin who weeded the front of the school and Fr Jonathan for helping Mr Smith to make us a new bird table. You are all very kind and it makes our school look great!

It was lovely to meet some of our new EYFS children who will start school in September. Thank you for visiting our playground and having an 'outdoor' meeting. We are looking forward to seeing you in September. Have a great weekend, Maire O'Regan and Sarah Cotton
