Dear Parents,

The children continue to work really hard in class. Thank you for supporting their learning by completing great homework at home. It really helps.

The Year 5 and 6 children visited the church yesterday to lay a wreath on behalf of the school to celebrate Remembrance Day. The Head Girls read beautiful poetry and Reverend Tony lead prayers to help us remember this precious celebration.

LIFE Education Trust are holding their annual Christmas Card Competition again this year. If your child would like to be selected to design the official Christmas card for the Trust in 2021, and make sure that the entry is in by 1st December. We look forward to seeing them all! All media is welcome on A5 paper, half of A4.

Please remember to fill in your form/letter, sent out last week in hard copy, in your child's bag, for the Candles by Candlelight, so that we know the exact numbers of children performing on the night. We have had a great response. But we want to finalise the numbers for our risk assessment.
