Dear Parents and Carers,

We would like to start our newsletter this week by thanking the 'Music Man Project' for coming in on Tuesday and performing to the school. We had a wonderful time clapping, singing and dancing along.

We all had such a fantastic day yesterday celebrating World Book Day as a whole school. We read together, shared stories of our own, made musical soundtracks for our favourite books, took part in quizzes and much more! A big thank you to Ms Tavener for making us yet another delicious, special lunch as part of our celebrations.

As you may have noticed, our Twitter/X account has been very quiet recently; unfortunately, we have had a lot of technical difficulties with the account. However, we are now back online! If you are not already following @roxwell19 on Twitter/X, please do so as this is where we share a large variety of photos and information regarding the exciting things we have been doing at school.

We are so pleased to see that many of our children are gaining independence and walking to and from school, on their own. Should your child be walking to or from school by themselves, please email the school office to confirm this.

Unfortunately, the Kids Inspire workshops we had arranged for the children next week have been postponed due to reasons out of our control. We will endeavour to book them in again as soon as possible.

The community at St Michael's and All Angels Church, in Roxwell, have asked us to inform you all that as Part of the Mothering Sunday celebrations, they will be holding a 'Mothering Sunday Service,' in the church, on Sunday at 10am. The service will be suitable for children and families of all ages. We hope to see you there.

Whilst speaking of the church, a reminder that our annual Easter service will be taking place on Thursday 28th March 2023 at 10:30am, which will be lead by our brilliant Year 3 and 4 pupils. All family members are welcome.

Have a lovely weekend. Mrs Melissa Taylor (Executive Headteacher, BA Hons, NPQSL) and Mrs Sarah Tate, (Head of School, BA Hons, NPQSL).
